DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-35 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable by Bar et al. (Bar), U.S. Patent No. 2004/0235495, in view of Kammerlander et al. US. Patent No. 4,667,202.

Regarding claims 1-35, Bar discloses a ranging and positioning system to measure a distance between two radio sets which send and receive packets to and from each other and to determine a relative position of such two radio sets, said system being characterized in that the sending radio set transmits packets, thereby determining the distance between the sending and receiving radio sets according to the time required for packets to go and come back (pages 3-4 [0020-0026 & 0028-0029]).

Bar fails to explicitly disclose the receiving radio set receives the packets and then sends them back after a certain length of time corresponding to an integral multiple of a prescribed unit time, and the sending radio set calculates the time required for packets to go and come back by subtracting the integral multiple of a prescribed unit time from the time taken from transmission of packets to reception of packets.

In a similar field of endeavor, Kammerlander discloses the receiving radio set receives the packets and then sends them back after a certain length of time corresponding to an integral multiple of a prescribed unit time, and the sending radio set calculates the time required for packets to go and come back by subtracting the integral multiple of a prescribed unit time from the time taken from transmission of packets to reception of packets (col. 6, line 63 to col. 7, lines 9).

At the time of the invention it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify Bar to include subtracting an integral multiple over a prescribed time unit from for the purpose of including the transmit and retransmit or (receive) time to achieve a accurate assessment of position.
